1 week.

2 MR. FREDERICKS: Your Honor, I would think we would
3 probably want a similar amount of time.

4 THE COURT: You don't want to infringe on his vacation
5 and he won't infringe on yours. Let me just pick a briefing
6 schedule then for the case.

7 Do you want to file it on September 30?

8 MR. HOUP: That sounds good.

9 THE COURT: Make it October 1. Tuesday, October 1.

10 How much time would you like to oppose it?

11 MR. FREDERICKS: Four weeks, 30 days. You have the 12 calendar there?

13 THE COURT: I do. Why don't you respond on October
14 31. And give me any reply by November 12.

15 I will set this matter down for an oral argument on
16 December 6 at 12 noon.

17 MR. FREDERICKS: The only comment I would have is that 18 we are trying to wrap up discovery within the existing 19 deadline. We are in the process of continuing to take 20 discovery relevant to this motion, and we obviously feel that
21 we should be allowed to clean that up and to moot any issue
22 that defendants might have that this is going to require a lot
23 of additional fact discovery.

24 THE COURT: On the issue of expert discovery, I would
25 expect that if that's going to become an issue, you will raise

1 it with me, but I do think that discovery should continue apace
2 and if despite everyone's good efforts you need some modest
3 additional period to complete discovery, but this motion should
4 not be a showstopper on discovery.

5 MR. FREDERICKS: I appreciate the clarification.

6 MR. HOUPPT: We haven't started expert discovery yet.

7 THE COURT: Anything further?

8 MR. HOUPPT: No, your Honor.

9 MR. FREDERICKS: No.

10 THE COURT: Thank you. The arguments are always well
11 presented by counsel so it's a pleasure to have you down here.

12 Have a good weekend.
